

PHOTOGRAPHY CONSENT FORM

During the year, the photographer will be taking pictures of all LLI students. The pictures will be used on Louisiana Leadership Institute's website, literature and other publications. The pictures published may include the student's name, grade, and awards received, etc.

I hereby grant permission to the webmaster, instructors or administrators of Louisiana Leadership Institute to use my child's photos or video product in official publications, productions, displays and on its World Wide Web site and other literature without further consideration, and acknowledge said individuals to crop, edit or treat the product at its discretion. These images will be for public domain use, or with restrictions noted below. They are for general information uses, media, education, and the internet. Where appropriate the product will be credited to the source and to the student by using the student's full name.

1. Pictures placed on the website are done so at no risk to the instructors, webmaster, or administrators of Louisiana Leadership Institute.
2. All pictures submitted will show the student's representing LLI in the highest regard.
3. Any student found using these photos in an inappropriate manner will be turned in to instructors for disciplinary action.
